outrageously gerrymandered the Con-gressional districts in Obje, Kentucky, Tennesses Marylan Land Indiana, in the hope of securing additional seats in the Louse. Obio. to particular, has been treated to one of the most disgraceful performances n the history of Democracy, the sotion of the last, Legislature being so unterly devold of anything like justice to the people that even Democratic papers have lelt constrained to criticise the garrymander. Major McKinlry, for instance, has been placed in a district that does not resemble adplibing in the wonderful manage of its construction, the only idea being to make it safely Democratic and if possibis preventibe return of the distinguished Congressman. It Mejor McKinley outs Congressing. It major mentaley cuts this systematically prepared majority down it will be for him and the Republican party a signal victory; If he is elected in spike of this outrage it will not only mark a magnificent personal and party triumph bit will be the most scathing reboke the Demokracy has re-ceived for years at the hands of an indignant people. Thus it will be seen that the Republicans enter the contest badly handl-sapped on account of this dishonest advantage held by the Democorate, but they have made a splendid fight with a just cause and it is plainly evident that the Democrats are a good deal slarmed in apits of the fact that they had "fixed things," as they supposed, to insure them control of the next Hopse.
